JAPAN GAME-SHOW INVASION!

Japanese game shows are about to invade your country!

Imagine a vanload of Japanese, pummeling down the streets of your capital city, then unloading from their van. They bustle through the streets grabbing locals to be on their crazy game show – it's Japan Game Show Invasion! All the crazy, zany outrageous games from Japan are coming to your country, along with a cast of wacky Japanese who will coach, torment, and ultimately bond with locals.

Based on the internationally acclaimed format Big in Japan, and winner of the 2009 Best Show of the Year and Best Reality Show at the Rose d'Or Festival, Japan Game Show Invasion brings those Japanese games you've come to love to your own backyard for the first time ever.

Along with all the authentic games from Big in Japan –complete with conveyor belts, velcro walls, giant fans and spinning chairs – you also get the famous Japanese game show host and his crazy sidekick judge.

Between competitions in the studio, the Japanese host and judge will experience a reverse culture clash, by enjoying local traditions, cuisines and mingling with locals. They will go on their own cultural adventures and interact in various events like speed dating and language classes, in what's sure to be hilarious encounters.

It's all the wild games, challenges and "fish out of water" fun that you've come to love in Big in Japan – only in your own backyard!
